The amendment received 12/30/03 has been entered and claims 1, 2, 7 are currently pending in this application.

Claims 1, 2, 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The addition of the term "mobile" in place of fluid is new matter. The specification teaches the CO₂ indicator is isolated but in no instance teaches it is mobile.

The rejections of record under 35 USC 102(b) over Turner, and 102(e) over DiGuseppi, under 35 USC 103(a) over each of Turner and DiGuseppi are maintained.

Applicant's arguments filed 12/30/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Turner and DiGuseppi teach that the indicator medium is immobilized whereas the claims are directed to a mobile indicator.

It is the examiner's position that "mobile" means capable of being moved place to place and the indicators of the above references would then be mobile. No particular limitations are claimed regarding where the indicator may be moved from or to.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
